3 RIPPING COMEDIES 3

"For Sale."

NORDISK SINGLE-REEL COMEDY.

When hubby comes home, wifie's visitor hides in the chest, and when the chest is sold, he goes with it. That chest is responsible for many adventures and a whole heap of trouble, but all comes right in the end.

"The Trumpeter and the Author."

NORDISK ONE-PART COMEDY.

Uncle's visit puts Jim in a quandary, so he borrows a nice flat and the party are enjoying themselves when its owner returns. Jim and his pal escape through the window, leaving uncle to his fate. But uncle's fate is a happy one, for the owner of the flat is an old lover of his, and she is delighted to meet him again.

NORDISK ONE-REEL COMEDY.

The foreman and his hard-up cousin are rivals for the hand and heart of the wealthy Dolly. The cousin simply wants her money, and as he has not seen her for years, she changes places with the parlour maid, and he falls headlong into the trap, proposes and is accepted. Then the foreman wins.
